He is In Jail.

Grazy Snake's Indian War Ends Behind the Prison Bars.

He Says the Great Spirit Will Insure Him Justice.

MANY INDIANS STILL IN HIDING.

Muskego, I. T., Feb. 4.—Chitto Harjo or "Grazy Snake," the leader of the warlike Creek Indians, and 17 of the Indian leaders of that tribe, have been handed in the federal jail here, where they will be held pending trial for treason. The Indians were brought here from Henrietta under escort of Troop A. Eighth cavalry, and United States Marshal Bennett and his posse. It is thought that a reward of $5,000 or $10,000, will smother the accused murderers out.

The Youtsey case will be called at Georgetown today. He will be sentenced to serve his life in the penitentiary. It is said that a number of indictments for murder in connection with the assassination of Governor Goebel were returned by the Franklin grand jury last week, but are kept secret until the accused shall have been arrested.

Developments of a sensational nature may be expected.—Glasgow Times.

CLOYD'S LANDING.
Avery Spear, of Vernon, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Eunice Cary visited Miss Minnie McCoskey Saturday night.

Mrs. Addie McCoy visited relatives at Vernon last week.

The Moshack Normal school is progressing nicely under the management of L. L. Cary and Price Kirkpatrick.

There was a social at J. O. Scott's Saturday night.

Mrs. Martha Gray is on the sick list.

Marvin Young shot Clyde Ballard in the shoulder with a 41 derring pistol, seriously injuring him. It occurred last week, and the fuss came up over a game of cards.

Geo. H. Hoffman is teaching at Centre Point.

Mumps is epidemic here.

Rice Hollinsworth is attending school at Moshack.

The Republican primary for the selection of candidates for county offices has been fixed for the first Monday in May. They say there are a few candidates among the men in black.

Sam Cary is attending a law school at Bowling Green.

James McCoy is attending school at Vernon.

D. J. Frazier is attending school at Bowling Green.

Moss Cary has announced for jailer.

Marked Men.
Has it come to the point that every public official who does his duty against the trusts and corporations is a marked man?

Attorney General Monnett, of Ohio, instituted suit against the Standard oil company and the Continental tobacco trust. He refused a bribe of $100,000, prosecuted the suits vigorously, was beaten out of his bids in the Republican state convention for re-nomination and a corporation man elected in his place. Last week Monnett's success dismissed every action against the trusts.

Out west, Nebraska is following the Ohio example. Attorney General Smyth instituted many suits against trusts conducting their affairs illegally and it is announced that his Republican successor will dismiss them all.

Mr. Bryan was beaten for president by the trusts and money-powers. From the presidency down, the trail of the golden serpent is over them all.—Glasgow Times.

Michael Fanning was fatally shot in New Orleans by his son who thought him a burglar.

The Assassination Cases.

Garnett Ripley, Captain of the illegally-organized Henry county military, which occupied so prominent part in the proceedings at Frankfort last winter, has been indicted, and is now in jail, charged with being accessory before the fact to the murder of Governor Goebel.

It is reported that governor Beckham will send a strong military force into the mountains after Terry and John Powers, both under indictment for the murder of Governor Goebel, both defendants.

It is believed that as soon as the requisition papers for Taylor and Finley are served upon the governor of Indiana and refused—as they surely will be—a big reward for the two fugitives will be offered by either governor Beckham, or the Goebel Reward Commission, or the Goebel brothers.

They met at 9 o'clock Sunday morning at Mrs. Nation's room and held a session of prayer, asking the Lord to protect them from bodily harm in the discharge of what they termed their duty to the community.

Mrs. Nation braved the storm and spoke at the Wesleyan church in the forenoon, at the Christian church in the afternoon and at the Loman Hill Methodist church in the evening.

A recruiting office for the Topeka brigade, Kansas division, "Carrie Nation's army," has been opened. About 200 "soldiers" have signed the roll.

The program of the defenders is to march down Kansas avenue late in the afternoon with drums beating and flags flying, and hold prayer meetings in front of every joint.

Mrs. Nation says that it was the intention of the home defenders to smash today, but this feature of the crusade was postponed for a day to enable the secret service agents to inquire into the story that armed men are guarding the joints.

Mrs. Nation says she does not mind a shotgun, but she does not want to lead other women to their death.

Postmaster Guthrie says that Mrs. Nation receives more mail than any bank in Topeka. Many of the letters contain money, and it is said that Mrs. Nation has already put aside $500 to help carry on the liquor war here.

JOPPA.
Farmers are busy preparing for their corn and tobacco crops. The wheat crop is thought to be very short.

A delightful social was given at the residence of J. P. Willis Friday night. Those from a distance who attended were Misses Ida Reynolds, Pearl Neal, Vester; Elsie Montgomery, Annie Reynolds, Mollie Jeffries, Craycraft.

The Register reports a disagreeable day and dull court at Richmond Monday.

Not more than 50 horses and the same number of mules changed hands; some good mules brought $125 which was a top figure. Horses sold from $40 to $80 and were a drag about 1,500 cattle were on the market at the pens and less than one third the number found purchasers at prices ranging from $3 to $5.

Scared Out.

Threats to Tar and Feather Mrs. Nation Alarm Her.

Programme at Topeka Stopped by an Ugly Rumor.

CARRIE NATION'S ARMY STARTED

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 4.—Postman Luster has reported to City Marshal Stahl a plot on the part of the liquor men to tar and feather Mrs. Carrie Nation, the "joint smasher." Luster says that a negro tough whom he once befriended gave him the tip.

Mrs. Nation is making an investigation. The report frightened Mrs. Nation and her sister crusaders, but they declare that they will continue the work of destroying "murder shops."

They met at 9 o'clock Sunday morning at Mrs. Nation's room and held a session of prayer, asking the Lord to protect them from bodily harm in the discharge of what they termed their duty to the community.

Telephoned to Heaven.

Warren, Ill., Jan. 31.—Agnes Louise Davis, the four-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Cass Davis, who is famous because of her method of saying her prayers by telephone, sent in her last call today. The little one when ready to say her prayers would go to the phone and call: "Oh, hi, central, give me heaven. I want to say my prayers."

She seemed in perfect health, but just at the time today her prayers the Lord called her and her little life went out almost without warning and she has gone today her prayers to the Lord in person.

Four days ago she predicted that she would go to heaven the first of any of her family, and her prediction came true. She was intelligent beyond her years, beautiful in person and disposition, greatly beloved by the entire community.

She was always ready and anxious to talk to heaven and wanted to say her prayers direct to God, and often wondered why God did not answer her "phone message; if He didn't hear, or if He couldn't see her from the skies, her last "phone message was answered, and in the twinkling of an eye she took her place at the other end of the line, where she could see and understand how God answered telephone messages.

Sympathy and Love.
A traveler was taken ill in a foreign land. It was feared that his disease was contagious and he was neglected and forsaken. A sister of Mary found him, cooled his aching head, and breathed words of hope into his ear. She spoke of duty, of hope, of trust, and of his ability to do for others. He recovered his health and strength, and became a blessing to his race, under the inspiration of this kindly woman's influence. This sympathy is shown to be the healer of disease, and the prompter to action for the good of others.

A boy was being taken from the city by an old society, to a home in the West. At the rendezvous he was seen to grasp something closely in his hand. He was asked to show what he was cussing. On opening his fingers a piece of calico was seen which the agent was about to throw away. Don't take it away; it is all I have to remember my mother by. It is part of an old calico made for me before she died. I want it to remember her by in my new home."

It was given back, and the boy carried it with him and it became an amulet to the boy and man. This manifested through a material thing proved to be a helper to make a better boy and man.

A Parable.
Behold an advertiser went forth to sow. And when he sowed, some seed fell into handbills and doggers, and the street cleaner came and gathered them up.

Some fell among concert and theater programs, and the people being interested in the performance and not in bargains, they were left on the seats or crumpled and thrown on the floor.

Some fell among fake schemes and gift enterprises, and popular contempt sprang up and choked them.

But some fell into legitimate newspapers, which found their way into the homes of the people who had time to read them, and they brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, thirty fold.

Who hath ears to hear let him hear.

There are now sixteen prisoners in solitary confinement in the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown, the most dangerous of the lot being James Pomeroy, "the bay murderer." He is constantly laying plans to escape and keeps the guards ever on the alert to thwart them. He once pulled down the ventilator over his cell door and made a saw of the portion of the material. Then the place was walled up and fresh air introduced into his cell in other ways. He has now been imprisoned on a life sentence twenty-seven years.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 13.

The small-pox epidemic at Somerset has about run its course.

Albert C. Stoll, who was a prominent lawyer of Louisville, is dead.

The friends of Representative Pugh feel sure that he will be appointed Judge of the new Federal district.

Mrs. Carrie Nation continues to smash saloons. She is arrested every day, to be immediately turned loose.

Hon. D. H. Smith has shied his cat for the United States Senate and wants a primary election—Goodnight.

Henry Youtsey has commenced doing time in the penitentiary, and only has a life-time to serve. He was placed in the cooking department.

The revenue men of the Eighth district have presented Mrs. John W. Yerkes with a handsome tea service, six pieces, which cost two hundred dollars.

Rolla White was acquitted at Williamsburg for killing James Shotwell, and in the conspiracy case against the Shotwells for blowing up White's store, the jury disagreed.

Circuit Judge W. W. Kimbrough of the Eighth Judicial district, died at Carlisle last Thursday night. He had been indisposed for a week, but had been on the bench every day of the term until a few hours before he died.

Hon. T. C. Bell, a prominent lawyer and politician, who died at his home in Harrodsburg several days ago, was one of the best known men in the State. He was active at all Democratic gatherings, and was a leading spirit in the Baptist Church.

Weaver, the strolling barber, charged with perjury in the Powers' case, was given a trial at Georgetown last week. A great many witnesses were introduced and the case given to the jury Thursday. After deliberating several hours they could not agree and were discharged.

In an opinion of the Attorney General of the State the Reeves brothers, who robbed and burned a large portion of Tompkinsville a number of years ago, and who escaped from the penitentiary, but were recently returned, forfeited their good time allowance when they escaped.

Details of the great steel deal have been made public. Mr. Carnegie is to be guaranteed 5 per cent. per annum on his $80,000,000 of bonds, and for his $80,870,000 of stock in the Carnegie Steel Company is to be given bonds to be issued by the State to the value of the properties involved in the deal. Thus Mr. Carnegie, will, in effect have a mortgage on the entire steel industry of the company, and but little cash will be required to conduct the negotiations.

Representative Griggs, of Georgia, made this Post Office appropriation bill the text for a speech full of common sense against the tendency on the part of Congress to increase the salaries of Federal employees. For instance, the following, the truth of which every one must acknowledge: "I undertake to say that there is not an employee of the government who devotes his whole time to its service, who does not receive greater pay than he would for like service in private life. There is not an employee of the government service today who did not better his or her condition financially when he entered it. There is not one who, if he could better his condition in other service, would not resign tomorrow. Then, why this paternal interest in government employees? All of them are free men and women, and of full age. Why should we make them wards of the nation? How is this fatherly interest of legislators, so lately accused of what seems to me a cancerous growth eating its way to the very vital of the American body politic, to be accounted for?" Mr. Griggs answered the last question by citing the growth of associations of various classes of government employees, organized ostensibly for other purposes, but actually used to lobby for a Congressional increase of the salaries of their members.

This session of Congress will soon close and it is to be hoped that the infamous ship subsidy bill will go down never to rise again, though strong efforts are being made to make it law. It seems to us that under the Constitution such a measure could not stand, but the party that controls Congress also interprets the constitution; the party that gave bounties to sugar kings is in the saddle. It's a record is full of class legislation from the building of gigantic tariff walls around a pen of its pet industries to the seizure and control of foreign countries. Theoretically it is a party of freedom and a lover of the constitution; practically, it has enslaved millions of people in other lands; has earned the flag 7,000 miles from the supreme law of the land and seeks to dictate to a free and independent people the language of a constitution. Progress, commercial advancement, class interests enchain its leaders and blinded its followers, but some day the great mass of people may awake to the true situation.

All the papers are talking about a State primary election law, and a large majority of the language such a measure. The Elizabethtown News, speaking upon the subject says: "There will be a bill submitted to the next Kentucky Legislature providing for a State Primary to nominate all municipal, county, district and State officers for all political parties which will open twenty per cent of the vote, and for a general registration on the day of the primary which shall be fixed by the law. The bill will be drafted very much after the new law adopted by Minnesota with a few changes to suit special conditions in Kentucky. The bill will, if enacted into a law, eliminate all acrimony and unfairness from politics and give the people of the State time to discuss something else but politics."

Congress has had under consideration for some time the repeal of the obnoxious law requiring a stamp on bank checks, and the people throughout the entire country expected this annoying tax would pass away, but it remains and those who give checks must continue to lick and cancel. It appears that this tax was retained for the purpose of reducing the beer tax—pander to the wishes of the brewers. In choosing between the interest of corporations and the interest and convenience of the great bulk of the people, Congress has not departed from the teachings of the dominant party.

It would probably be a wise act and a judicious expenditure of money if Congress would appropriate sufficient means to build a prison purposely and exclusively for Colonial Post Office smugglers.

Paid list since last issue: Jas. F. Shepherd, James E. Cantrell, M. M. Blakeman, Vaughtner & McClellan, H. J. Sherrill, C. E. Reynolds, J. Z. Reynolds, O. R. McClellan.

Last Friday the House passed 184 private pension bills, making 900 for the session. There are more to follow.

En-Congressman Jerry Simpson says if Mrs. Nation is not stopped in her wrecking business that Kansas will be turned into a terrible and bloody rebellion.

Old Virginia is fixing for trouble—making a new Constitution. It would be well for her legislators to look at the changed condition of this State since her Constitution was remodeled.

The friends of Judge A. M. J. Cochran are making a fight in his interest against Congressman Pugh for the new Federal Judgeship appointment. They will go to Washington in great numbers.

The bill appropriating $50,000 for the St. Louis Exposition has been favorably reported to the House, and Speaker Henderson has promised that it shall be voted upon, which is equivalent to a promise of its passage.

The possibility of an extra session of Congress to deal with the Cuban question was discussed by the Cabinet last week. Attention was called to a paragraph in the President's message, by which he said to still stand firmly. That paragraph said in substance that Cuba would not be turned over to the Cubans until the United States was certain as to the Constitution. In other words, the Constitution must suit the United States first and then the Cubans.

The Republican part of the Tennessee Legislature recently adopted resolutions endorsing Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, for President of these United States. Well, Mr. Beveridge is a shrewd man, but it seems very strange that Tennessee Republicans should overlook Brownlow. No doubt if he was President he would move the capital city to East Tennessee. Brownlow has pulled Congress longer, stronger and more successfully than any man in America. This action of Tennessee Republicans is a case of ingratitude.

Messrs. James Compton and E. Rowe made a business trip to our town one day last week in a vehicle, and just as they were crossing the creek coming into town their conveyance came uncoupled, letting them down in the water any where from two to four feet deep. Caldwell county has fifty-seven candidates for the various county offices.

The two-year-old daughter of A. E. Smith at Paducah was choked to death by a walnut kernel.

An election on local option, at O. R. resulted in a victory for the saloon. Corbin has been a "dry" town overnight years, but "blind tigers" have flourished all the time.

Mary Heit, wife of Ed Heit, was kindling a fire with kerosene on a shanty built before Mayville, when the can exploded. The boat was burned up and the woman was burned to death.

James Herndon, of near Needmore, Nicholas county, claims the distinction of being the oldest living person in Kentucky. He was 103 years of age the 7th day of last month, having been born January 7, 1798.

"It is such a pity as this that make futile all efforts to suppress vice," was the way Judge Barker characterized a verdict of not guilty against Al Roberts, charged with conducting a disorderly house in Louisville.

W. T. Phillips, a wealthy farmer of Mercer county, died last Friday of pneumonia. His wife, who was apparently well, lay down on the bed beside him the day before and died in ten minutes. They were buried in one grave.

At Madisonville, Policeman C. J. Staton was shot and killed by Ora Ferguson, who was resisting arrest for disorderly conduct. Ferguson was also fatally shot, both men being killed instantly, and died about an hour after the shooting.

It is stated that Mrs. Carrie Nation, the famous saloon wrecker of Kansas, was born in Woodford county. She was Carrie Moore, daughter of George Moore, who once lived on a farm between Midway and Versailles. In her girlhood she was a school-mate of Senator J. C. S. Blackburn.

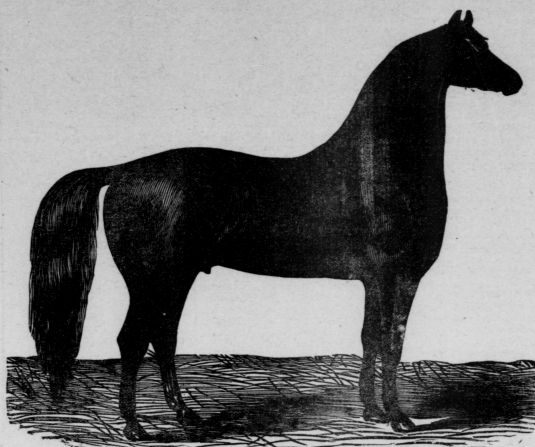

At Hanly, Jessamine county, Bud Legrand, a negro, twenty years of age, concealed himself under a bed at the residence of Daniel Combs, his employer, an attempted assassin of Mrs. Combs. The frightened woman fled to the house of a neighbor and a party of men arrested Legrand and carried him to the Nicholasville jail.

While arranging her toilet Miss Edith Wilson, of Louisville, almost lost her life. In leaning over to fasten her shoes her side came, which were well-lit, ignited from the grate, and in a moment her hair was enveloped in flames. But for the efforts of her mother or the young lady's life would have been lost. Her mother was seriously burned.

The Louisville Republicans have caught the Post of that city and can't let it go. The Post is making life miserable for some of the Republican leaders, who are not willing to see a new convert assume the role of boss.

The saloon keepers of Kentucky can breathe freely for a while. Mrs. N. has said she will not sell any more saloon licenses.

WAYNE COUNTY.

Steubenville.

The farmers of this vicinity are making a great effort in preparing their soil for the incoming season.

There are several nice bunches of cattle being fed in this neighborhood.

Business of all kinds is encouraging—not much loafing going on.

Messrs. Darity & Carrell, who carry a nice line of general merchandise, are doing a nice business and selling lots of goods.

Quarterly meeting at the Methodist church last Saturday and Sunday. Elder Jesse L. Murrell was present, and while the weather was very disagreeable there was a good congregation both days and the preaching seemed to be very much enjoyed by all present.

The Baptist of this place will begin a series of meetings the second Sunday in Feb., Rev. Davidson, of McKinney, in the lead.

The commercial men do not fail to look after their interests in this section. There is a number in town Monday, it being county court.

Mr. E. M. Jones and wife, who have been life-long citizens of Wayne county, having sold their possessions here to H. McLean, of Russell county, started this week to look over a future home. They contemplate making Kansas City, Mo., or thereabout their future abiding place. The people of Wayne county wish them a happy life in their old age.

The school here under the management of Prof. Morrow, graduate from the Lexington University, is a grand success. Mr. Morrow is a first-class gentleman and a fine instructor.

The young ladies of Lockett's Chapel church are making one united effort in raising money to send the Gospel to the heathen lands. They are progressing nicely in their collections.

Elder Murrell preached Sunday night at the Methodist church in Monticello. A large congregation was present. Bro. Murrell seems to have a host of friends on the Monticello work, he having been the former pastor.

Rev. U. G. Root, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, Chestnut Street, Louisville, will begin a series of meetings at Monticello, beginning Monday night after the third Sunday in February.

"I hobbled into Dr. Jackson's drug store one evening, says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by M. Graves.

Traitors, Both.

Mark Twain and former President Harrison have heretofore been regarded as excellent types of the American citizen—proud of their country, jealous of its good name, solicitous that its Government shall remain true to the principles of liberty upon which it was founded.

It is becoming sadly certain, however, that the great American philosopher-humorist and the Republican ex-President of the United States are placing themselves in the category of traitors under the McKinley definition. They dare to deny that McKinley is doing God's will in enslaving, or else slaughtering, a little people who aspire to freedom. They refuse to sanction our surrender to the British policy of robbing weaker nations in the name of the Almighty.

This is a great pity for Mark Twain and for Mr. Harrison. The grim and savage humor with which Twain tells the truth of the hypocricy of Mr. McKinley's "benevolent assimilation" pose, and the delicate satire of Mr. Harrison's unmasking of the countenance of administration greed which grows with advanced age, are the virtues which make them the "people's friends" and "will" by the people. "Benevolent" robbing, cannot but make it a disloyal gentlemen. They tell the truth too plainly.

And telling the truth in these days is treason. It is a treason when the rulers of a nation are guilty of sins concerning which they do not wish the truth to be told. Mark Twain and Benjamin Harrison are traitors. Just watch the editorial columns of the McKinley organs and see if they are not denounced as such—at Louisville Republic.

Danger of Colds and Lagrippe.

The greatest danger from colds and lagrippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of lagrippe in less time than other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by M. Graves, who guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for lagrippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

C. F. Boden, a Joliet, Ill., saloon-keeper swallowed his false teeth and died in consequence.

The oldest man in the world, it has been discovered, is a Russian who is 130 years of age, and the oldest woman is Mrs. Nancy Hollifield, of Battle Creek, Mich., who is 117.

The endorsement of Politician Pugh for the Eastern Kentucky District Judgeship of the Democratic members of the Kentucky congressional delegation is unquestionably good fellowship and probably good politics, but it is bad law and worse patriotism. Pugh was cut out for a County Judge, and like the baby catfish that grew up in a castaway jug, he has never expanded sufficiently to burst his environment.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured.

The United States revenue ship "Albatross" cannot be converted into a battleship aggregating $270,000,000—"one-quarter Government paternalism and three-quarters useless piratical raid on the public treasury."

Mr. J. Richardson had a running sore on his leg for twenty years. Tried doctors and medicines without end or any permanent good. Mr. L. B. Nunnally, druggist, Hartford, Iowa, recommended Morley's Sarsaparilla and it cured the cause of the sore and healed it from the inside. A few bottles cured his leg, and put him in better health than he has been in for 20 years. Ask your druggist.

When the army bill becomes a law the president will have the appointment of 3,814 officers, including a lieutenant general, four major generals, nine brigadier generals, 870 staff officers.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Mo. He says: "I had kept adding to my cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help. One day I was in the drug store of Mr. Honahan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I always recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by M. Graves.

The body of Henry Switzer, who had been missing from his home in Chicago since December 19 was found last week imbedded in a cake of ice floating in Lake Michigan.

Sarah Bornhardt has taken out one hundred thousand dollars on her life for the benefit of her son.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Faintness and Dizzy Spells, when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Elsie Clancy, of Peterson, La., and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters quickly cured me, and, although I am now 45 years of age, I feel as young as ever." Mrs. Clancy writes: "I feel as if I should like to give perfect testimonials to all who are afflicted with kidney trouble." T. E. Patterson, Proprietor.

Miss Rachel Charlotte Fitz-raid, daughter of the Earl of Dunraven, died in Ireland.

Consumption is a germ disease. The germs are everywhere, but they cannot get hold of you unless you get your lungs ready for them by neglecting a cold or failing to properly cure a cough. The important merit of Morley's Honey Peppermint is, that while it cures quickly it cures thoroughly. Ask your druggist.
